

LAS MUJERES Y CUERDAS

Las mujeres y cuerdas
De la guitarra,
Es menester talento
Para templarlas.

Flojas no suenan,
Y suelen saltar muchas
Si las aprietan.

(Women and guitar strings: you need talent to tune them. If they're slack they don't sound; and lots of them, if you tighten them too much, break.)

An amusing song, to a poem widely current in its day, in which the guitar accompaniment provides a firm reinforcement for the flowing rhythm.
